Our Political Field. There is plenty of good material in the plected on Tuesday night to warrant the nmunity in believing that the party's

Mairs will be sagaciously managed for the coming two years. Among the members elected are men o ditical experience who will make good assagers and leaders; while there are there eminently qualified for service on the Finance Committee, and others still who will be excellent workers in humbler but scarcely less important positions.

At the outset of the career of this com nittee we venture to say that it should return to the custom which ever prevailed nntil within a few years past of holding all of its meetings in private. Party contnittees are not expected to hold public neetings. The State Democratic Committee never does why should the City Committee? In organizing for battle we have he right to keep our plans secret. To let the public into our councils is to le the enemy into our confidence. All of our plans of campaign and as many as possible of our family squabbles should be kept to ourselves. If they are to go to for them to go is through newspaper dumns, but nine times out of ten they ould and should be regarded as sacred as ntrusted to its Executive Committee of e from each ward many matters coning organization-matters which, as perience had taught, could be better isposed of by a small committee than by ommittee. The former functions of the Executive Committee should be re tored, and to it should be given a great al of the routine work that now enses the time of the City Committee. This would leave the City Committee nore leisure for the consideration of the reat questions which are constantly

This was the plan which was successfully tried in the days when the Republi can party was a much more formidable Virginia than it now is: this was a art of the scheme which enabled us to wrest the State from the grasp of Ma-BONE, and that it may be very usefully employed in the approaching canvass there seems to be no doubt.

We welcome the new committee to its field of duty and promise it that whenever will find us willing and waiting. This is going to be a campaign in which we shall have to fight not only our ancient enemy, but in which we shall have to reason with some first-rate men, life-long Democrats, who have gone off to the Third party and to the Fourth party-the Prohibitionists. For the Republicans we may provide red-bot shot; but for our old friends our missile must be persuasion, and our ammuni tion exposure of the horrors of the force till, and appeals to those ties which never fail to prove that "blood is thicker than

The New Secretary. The President has found another Indinan willing to accept Federal office, and o him he has given the portfolio of Secre-

This gentleman is Hon, John W. Foster, who was born in Pike county, Ind., March 2, 1836; who was trained for the bar, and practiced his profession until he went into the Federal army, where he rose to the rank of colonel. After the war was over he laid down his sword and took up the pen and edited a daily at Evansville, until be discovered that it was better to take charge of the public's letters than to do s uch writing himself, when he accepted the postmastership of that place.

In 1873 President GRANT sent him a nister to Mexico, and Haves reappointed him, but he was soon transferred to Rus-sia and remained in that country till 1881.

In 1883 Mr. FOSTER was appointed by resident ARTHUR as Minister to Spain and here he stayed until 1885, when he was neceeded by Dr. Cunny.
Mr. Fosten is regarded as a safe rather than a brilliant diplomat. He has had tree the confidence of the President, but he cannot be looked upon as a worthy or of Mr. BLANE. His appointent was doubtless made to strengthen e President in Indiana, though it seems more Indianians are supplied with d clamor. We may, however, take it anted that the President believes that he has done a wise thing for his party in giving this great office to Mr. Foster. He is not going to let his own State sho away from him if he can help it. In other ords he sees that there is danger there. And so there is; and a great deal of it for

A Ratification-Meeting.

The Thees suggests that a ratification-tweeting be field here in Richmond. No doubt it would do good, though, as we save heretofore said, we know of no "Hill. in all this community who is a kicker." No; not one.

In case a ratification-meeting is deterbring forward speakers who would be influential with the Third-partyites, and who would explain to those of our coun-try friends who are disinclined to vote for . CLEVELAND how suicidal it would be to throw away their votes upon any so-called "People's candidate."

The caudidate of Democratic people is CLEVELAND; of Republican people, HAR-EISON. The choice is simply between Hannison and Chevenand. That is the

If by having a ratification-meeting we remortatic family reunion with a presentation of the true situation of affairs to Third-party men it would probably do much good. The DESPATCH stands ready to premote the undertaking to the best of its that from among the three candidates re-ceiving the highest number of electoral votes the House shall choose a President. Hence, if between Harmson. CLEVELAND, and a People's-party candidate, the elec-toral vote shall be so divided that neither shall be elected, then the House of Repre-sentatives must proceed to elect one of these three. In a word, there would be no change at all in the candidates, and there could be none. CLEVELAND and HARRISON would be candidates in virtue of the provision of the Federal Constitution to which we have just referred. to which we have just referred.

The House of Representatives on Mon ay resolved to pension those who served nurses in army hospitals during the war. This will admit to the pension rolls a great many women

Mr. MEREDITH, of Virginia, insisted that those who had been paid for their services as nurses should not be pensioned, but he received little support in this position even from his party associates.

The pension-roll seems destined to ro on forever. Southern Democrats cannot vote against pension bills without being misunderstood, and northern Democrat seem indisposed to risk the anger of the Grand Army of the Republic by doing so.

There is, however, one good feature in the army-nurse bill, and that is an amendment adopted, on motion of Mr. OATES, alowing ex-Confederate officers to receive ssions in the United States army. Had it become a law years ago it might have benefited many of our veterans. However, it is the right thing to do even at this late day, and it is to be hoped and believed that the Senate will look at it that Civil-Service Reform.

Professor John Harr, Sr., gives in this week's Religious Herald his views on the civil-service reform. One little paragraph s so comprehensive and suggestive that we cannot forbear to let our readers se We quote:

"I have scant sympathy with the civil-service reform sham. It is un-American. It is a petty interference with the rights of the Chief-Execu-tive. Its tendency is to create a privileged lass of public functionaries. And, if the thing roes on, we shall presently be asked to ensions for the old and disabled of that class." This last is an insuperable objection Look at our army-pension list and imagine if you can what a civil-pension list would be in this country.

To a Post reporter Judge Wanning said n Washington on Tuesday that Harrison is very strong in Virginia and Chevelani very weak. We should reverse that declaration and say that Hannison is very weak in Virginia and CLEVELAND very strong. Mr. HARRISON and General Manone have no sympathy with each other. Perhaps Judge Wappill said there was a possi bility-not a probability-that Harntso would carry Virginia. It the Virginia election law is what the Republicans have represented it to be -- . But enough! The Judge is not a prophet.

Ex-Governor Gasy presided over a great ratification meeting held at Indianapolis the night before last, and was very hearty in his eulogies of CLEVELAND and STEVEN GRAY is all right; and he says that Indi RAIMON, N. C., June 29.—A battery of the naval reserve has been organized at Newberne, and Samuel C. Bragaw has been elected lieutenant-commander. The members have had experience in the mintia and are also good beatmen.

At Durham C. A. Williams, a section-master on the Richmond and Danville railiway, went home to his dinner yesterday and found his young wife lying dead on the bed and her child, a year old, sitting beside the body trying to awake the dead. Mrs. Williams was 25 years old and was a native of Hillsboro. Heart-disease, to which she had for some time been subject, caused her death.

the macadamized streets, brick side The macadamized streets, brick sidewalks, and store-awnings make our city look like the large cities of New York and Richmond—only things are not built up. To-morrow we are to have a grand county and city Cleveiand and Stevenson ratification meeting. Aiready the discontented are wheeling into line. No matter how dissatisfied many were, they are true Democrats and will work and vote as of yore. Many are the Cleveland white hats that are resurrected from four years ago and none of them have crape on them. The fear of a "force bill" has brought our people out, and lots of those who were disappointed will speak, work, and vote straight. The Rads and Third parties are not "in it."

FOURTEEN MEN BURIED UNDER A FALLING FOUR-STORY WALL

White Man and Two Colored Killed Outright-Nine Severely Injured-Miraculous Escapes.

[Special telogram to the Dispatch.] LYNCHEURG, Va., June 29.—An awful slamity occurred here this morning. While fifteen or twenty workmen were engaged building an extension to the large furniture store of J. H. C. Winston, on Main street, the great brick wall on which they were working and which had reached nearly to the fourth story gave way and buried nearly all of them under the debris.

ALARM GIVEN. The fire-nlarms were sounded and soon a creat crowd of citizens were at the scene. Volunteers were plentiful and about 200 men went to work to rescue the entombed

J. H. C. Winston, the proprietor of the store, was known to be under the pile of bricks, and his body was recovered in about one hour. He was found to have suffered such terrible bruises and gashes that he had died some time before he was discovered.

Two colored men were also found lying lose beside him with their lives crushed EIGHT SEVERELY INJURED.

The work was pushed for several hours longer and eight more colored men were taken out. Some of them were very severely hurt.

A small building next to the furniture store, occupied as a tin-shop by John E. Krause, was crushed by the falling wall.

NABROW ESCAPES Three men were at work in the shop at the time, and one of them, J. J. Krause, jumped from a back window twenty-five feet to the ground and broke his arm in two places. The others escaped.

MIRACULOUS.

It is almost miraculous how any one on the wall escaped with his life, for nearly every one was covered up with the bricks and timber as he fell to the ground.

J. H. C. Winston, the only white man killed, was one of the best-known and oldest merchants in this city. He was a native of Halifax county, but had spent most of his life here. He was 65 years of age.
